There are two apps (MeetUp and Couchsurfing) that provides access to a lot of events, grupos like language exchanges or beach volleyballs or just help you to make

	friends from all over the world. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Living city centre of Malaga is good for bus links. The bus leaves from Calle Cordoba in Soho. In the city you can find many things to do and be involved in. Also there are manyt international groups to meet people from all over the world. You can find these groups on Facebook. If living in the city of malaga I recommend to stay in the historical centre or Soho.- If you have a car and you prefer quiet neighborhood and easy scsess to the beach, Torremolinos is also good option to live in as it is just up to 15 minutes without any traffic jam on your way. Benalmádena is another possibilty but it's around 25 minutes, although it's easier to find accommodation there.
Getting to school	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Public transport schedules. The bus lines EMT 9 and 10 are easily connected from the city centre to the school.
Accommodation - Where to live in town?	These are some useful links for rental websites: Idealista. Milanuncios. Facebook or Facebook market place. Air bnb is useful for temporary accomodation before finding permanent accomodation.
